

South African Revenue Service

SARS Media Release – SARS officials thwart bribery attempts in two incidents

Pretoria, 9 October 2015 – Two SARS officials showed the highest integrity in separate incidents this week, turning down bribes of R100 000 and R10 000 respectively, which were offered to release goods that had been stopped at border posts. Read more...

The illicit goods found in a truck at Groblersbridge

Some of the bribe money offered to a SARS official to release a transformer (see below) at Kopfontein

The generic Viagra found at the Ortia mail centre

The boxes containing suspected counterfeit shoes at Lebombo.