

SARS Media Release – Illicit cigarettes hidden in trailer carrying horse at Beitbridge

Pretoria, 30 September 2015 – A vigilant SARS official discovered over R1 million worth of illicit cigarettes hidden in a trailer carrying a horse at Beitbridge border post on 28 September 2015.

And in another unusual bust, two Customs Detector Dog Unit members stopped a taxi which had illegally passed through the border near the Oshoek border post from Swaziland on 25 September.

Read more....

The horse trailer with several false compartments containing illicit cigarettes

The dagga and heroin that was found in a taxi near the Swaziland border

The boxes of illicit cigarettes which were strapped to the undercarriage of a taxi at Lebombo

