#	QUESTION	SARS RESPONSE
1.	I hereby request for the literature review for the following tender; A survey to gauge public opinion on tax compliance, RFP-19/2017. I recall that during the briefing session for this tender, we were informed that a literature review of this study was already done by SARS for preceding study of the same nature. Is it possible that as a potential bidder, I may have access to this document?"	The bidder should conduct their own literature review on the impact of public opinions on tax compliance.
2.	When is the project expected to start?	As soon as the procurement process is completed.
3.	How must we submit our bids?	You must submit 2 files marked originals and 2 copies marked Copies (effectively 4 files). The one original file containing the price and B-BBEE documents only and the other original file containing SBDS and technical responses. Two copies of the originals must be submitted containing all documents in the original files.
4.	In terms of the sample, do you have any parameters of how wide spread should I go in terms of the demographics?	There is no limit of the areas and different age groups. The sample must be a representative of all people in South Africa; The difference will be that 80% of the sample must be tax paying people while 20% will be non-tax paying people. We must have a full coverage of the different demographics.
