

SOUTH AFRICAN REVENUE SERVICE

INTERPRETATION NOTE: NO. 49

DATE: 29 JULY 2009

ACT : VALUE-ADDED TAX ACT, NO. 89 OF 1991 (the VAT Act)
SECTION : SECTION 1, DEFINITION OF THE TERM "INPUT TAX" READ WITH SECTIONS 16(1), 16(2), 16(3)
SUBJECT : DOCUMENTARY PROOF REQUIRED TO SUBSTANTIATE A VENDOR'S ENTITLEMENT TO "INPUT TAX" OR A DEDUCTION AS CONTEMPLATED IN SECTION 16(2)

Preamble

In this Note –

- "the Commissioner" means the Commissioner for the South African Revenue Service;
- "the VAT Act" means the Value-Added Tax Act, No. 89 of 1991;
- "SARS" means the South African Revenue Service; and
- legislative references to sections are to sections of the VAT Act unless otherwise stated.

1. Purpose

This Note provides guidelines in respect of the documentary proof that must be obtained and retained under section 16(2) to substantiate a vendor's entitlement to "input tax" as defined in section 1 or a deduction as contemplated in section 16(3).

2. Background

Value-added tax (VAT) is aimed at taxing final consumption. As a result, where a VAT vendor acquires goods or services for purposes of consumption, use or supply in the course of making taxable supplies, that vendor is entitled, subject to the provisions of sections 16(2), 16(3), 17(1), 17(2) and 20 to deduct from the amount of output tax –

- the VAT paid in respect of a taxable supply made to that vendor;
- an amount equal to the tax fraction of any payment made by the vendor in respect of second-hand goods (other than "fixed property", as defined);
- an amount equal to the tax fraction of any payment made by the vendor in respect of fixed property as defined, limited to the amount of transfer duty or stamp duty paid;

- the amount equal to the tax fraction of the outstanding cash value in respect of goods repossessed by the vendor under an instalment credit agreement; or
- a deduction as contemplated in sections 16(3)(c) to (n).

3. The law

For ease of reference, the relevant sections of the VAT Act are quoted in the Annexure.

4. Application of the law

Sections 16(2)(a) to (e) specify the documentation that a vendor must be in possession of when deducting input tax in terms of sections 16(3)(a) and (b). Failure to obtain and retain the specified documentation will result in the input tax deduction being disallowed. Section 16(2) highlights one of the important characteristics of VAT, being the obtaining and retaining of documentation to facilitate a proper audit trail in respect of a self-assessment tax. Section 16(2)(f) requires a vendor to obtain and retain documentary evidence as is acceptable to the Commissioner, to substantiate the entitlement to the deduction referred to in sections 16(3)(c) to (n). This Note also sets out the documentation to be obtained and retained by a vendor to substantiate such deduction.

5. Documentary proof

The documentary proof required in terms of section 16(2) to substantiate the deduction of input tax in respect of vendors registered on the invoice basis and on the payments basis, as well as the special deductions in section 16(3), is set out below. Unless stated to the contrary, all items listed in Tables A, B and C must be retained by the vendor at the time of making the deduction.

5.1 Input tax deduction in respect of vendors registered on the invoice basis

The standard basis of accounting for VAT is the invoice basis. A vendor registered on the invoice basis is, generally, entitled to an input tax deduction on the earlier of payment or invoice, subject to the deduction being supported by a valid tax invoice.

As a general rule, a tax invoice is not required where the total consideration for a supply is in money and does not exceed R50 as contemplated in section 20(6). The vendor making the deduction will have to obtain and retain a receipt or cash slip in order to qualify for a deduction of input tax.

Table A below provides an overview of the documentary proof, as well as references to the relevant sections of the VAT Act, to be obtained and retained by vendors that are registered on the invoice basis.

5.2 Input tax deduction in respect of vendors registered on the payments basis

A vendor accounting for VAT on the payments basis is allowed an input tax deduction on its purchases to the extent of any payment made. Furthermore, the vendor must hold a valid tax invoice at the time the input tax is deducted. As a general rule, a tax invoice is not required where the total consideration for a supply is in money and does not exceed R50 as contemplated in section 20(6).

In addition to the aforementioned, the vendor making the deduction will have to obtain and retain proof of payment (for example, a receipt, cash slip or bank statement) in order to qualify for a deduction of input tax.

Table B below provides an overview of the documentary proof, as well as references to the relevant sections of the VAT Act, to be obtained and retained by vendors that are registered on the payments basis.

5.3 Special deductions against output tax

Where any of the documentation set out below, cannot be obtained, the Commissioner may, in terms of section 16(2)(f), consider the circumstances of that vendor and allow alternative documentary proof obtained by the vendor to allow a deduction specified in section 16(3). In order for the Commissioner to consider this alternative documentary proof (as outlined in Table C below), the vendor must submit a written application to the local SARS branch office and obtain a response before deducting input tax.

6. Conclusion

Input tax or any special deduction under section 16(3) should be claimed on the VAT return in the period during which the time of supply occurs, or for imported goods, the period during which the VAT on importation is paid.

Input tax or a special deduction may be claimed in a later period if the vendor is unable to make a claim for input tax or a special deduction in the aforementioned period (because evidence is not received in time). In terms of the first proviso to section 16(3) of the VAT Act, this later period may not be made more than five (5) years after the date when the input tax or special deduction should have been claimed. However, where the Commissioner is satisfied that the deduction was not permissible in accordance with the practice generally prevailing, the five (5) year period is limited to six (6) months.

Annexure – The law

Section 1 – definition of the term “input tax”

“input tax”, in relation to a vendor, means—

- (a) tax charged under section 7 and payable in terms of that section by—
 - (i) a supplier on the supply of goods or services made by that supplier to the vendor; or
 - (ii) the vendor on the importation of goods by him; or
 - (iii) the vendor under the provisions of section 7(3);
- (b) an amount equal to the tax fraction (being the tax fraction applicable at the time the supply is deemed to have taken place) of the lesser of any consideration in money given by the vendor for or the open market value of the supply (not being a taxable supply) to him by way of a sale on or after the commencement date by a resident of the Republic (other than a person or diplomatic or consular mission of a foreign country established in the Republic that was granted relief, by way of a refund of tax as contemplated in section 68) of any second-hand goods situated in the Republic: Provided that where such second-hand goods consist of—
 - (i) fixed property in respect of the acquisition of which transfer duty is, in terms of the Transfer Duty Act, payable or would have been payable had an exemption from transfer duty (whether in terms of the Transfer Duty Act or any other Act of Parliament) not been applicable; or
 - (ii) a share in a share block company in respect of the original issue or registration of transfer of which stamp duty is, in terms of the Stamp duties Act, payable or would have been payable had an exemption from stamp duty (whether in terms of the Stamp Duties Act or any other Act of Parliament) not been applicable, such amount shall not exceed the amount of transfer duty or stamp duty, as the case may be, which is or would have been payable in respect of such acquisition, original issue or registration of transfer, as the case may be; and

- (c) an amount equal to the tax fraction of the consideration in money deemed by section 10(16) to be for the supply (not being a taxable supply) by a debtor to the vendor of goods repossessed under an instalment credit agreement: Provided that the tax fraction applicable under this paragraph shall be the tax fraction applicable at the time of supply of the goods to the debtor under such agreement as contemplated in section 9(3)(c), where the goods or services concerned are acquired by the vendor wholly for the purpose of consumption, use or supply in the course of making taxable supplies or, where the goods or services are acquired by the vendor partly for such purpose, to the extent (as determined in accordance with the provisions of section 17) that the goods or services concerned are acquired by the vendor for such purpose;

Section 16 – Calculation of tax payable

(1) The tax payable by a vendor shall be calculated by him in accordance with the provisions of this section in respect of each tax period during which he has carried on an enterprise in respect of which he is registered or is required to be registered in terms of section 23: Provided that the Commissioner may authorise a vendor to calculate the tax payable in accordance with a method which the Minister may prescribe by regulation.

(2) No deduction of input tax in respect of a supply or the importation of any goods into the Republic, or any other deduction shall be made in terms of this Act, unless—

- (a) a tax invoice or debit note or credit note in relation to that supply has been provided in accordance with section 20 or 21 and is held by the vendor making that deduction at the time that any return in respect of that supply is furnished; or
- (b) a tax invoice is in terms of section 20(6) or (7) not required to be issued, or a debit note or credit note is in terms of section 21 not required to be issued; or

- (e) a tax invoice or debit or credit note has been provided as contemplated in section 54(2), and a statement as contemplated in section 54(3)(a) is held by the vendor at the time a return in respect of the supply to the vendor is furnished; or
- (f) the vendor, in any other case, is in possession of documentary proof, as is acceptable to the Commissioner, substantiating the vendor's entitlement to the deduction at the time a return in respect of the deduction is furnished:

Provided that where a tax invoice or debit note or credit note in relation to that supply has been provided in accordance with this Act, or a bill of entry or other document has been delivered in accordance with the Customs and Excise Act, or the vendor is in possession of documentary proof substantiating any other deduction, as the case may be, the Commissioner may determine that no deduction for input tax in relation to that supply or importation shall be made unless that tax invoice or debit note or credit note or that bill of entry or other document is retained in accordance with the provisions of section 55(3).

(3) Subject to the provisions of subsection (2) of this section and the provisions of sections 15 and 17, the amount of tax payable in respect of a tax period shall be calculated by deducting from the sum of the amounts of output tax of the vendor which are attributable to that period, as determined under subsection (4), and the amounts (if any) received by the vendor during that period by way of refunds of tax charged under section 7(1)(b) and (c) and 7(3)(a), the following amounts, namely—

 - (bb) in respect of supplies of second-hand goods to which paragraph (b) of the definition of "input tax" in section 1 applies which consist of—
 - (A) fixed property in respect of the acquisition of which transfer duty is, in terms of the Transfer Duty Act, payable; or
 - (B) a share in a share block company in respect of the original issue or registration of transfer of which stamp duty is, in terms of the Stamp Duties Act, payable,
 if the full or final amount of such transfer duty or stamp duty, as the case may be, has been paid during that tax period;

Provided that this paragraph does not apply where a vendor acquires goods or services that are to be awarded as a prize or winnings and in respect of which that vendor qualifies or will qualify for a deduction in terms of paragraph (d);

- (c) an amount equal to the tax fraction of any payment made during the tax period by the vendor to indemnify another person in terms of any contract of insurance: Provided that this paragraph—
- (i) shall only apply where the supply of that contract of insurance is a taxable supply or where the supply of that contract of insurance would have been a taxable supply if the time of performance of that supply had been on or after the commencement date;
 - (ii) shall not apply where that payment is in respect of the supply of goods or services to the vendor or the importation of any goods by the vendor;
 - (iii) shall not apply where the supply of that contract of insurance is a supply charged with tax at the rate of zero per cent under section 11 and that other person is, at the time that that payment is made, not a vendor and not a resident of the Republic;
 - (iv) shall not apply where that payment results from a supply of goods or services to that other person where those goods are situated outside the Republic or those services are physically performed elsewhere than in the Republic at the time of that supply;
