

INVITATION FOR APPLICATION BY SUITABLE CANDIDATES FOR APPOINTMENT OR RE-APPOINTMENT AS TAX COURT MEMBERS

The South African Revenue Service (SARS) hereby invites applications by individuals, for appointment as members of the Tax Court.

The Tax Court is established in terms of section 83(3) of the Income Tax Act, 1962. The provincial jurisdictions of the Tax Courts are Johannesburg, Cape Town, Port Elizabeth, Durban, Bloemfontein, and Kimberly.

In terms of section 118 of the Tax Administration Act, 2011 (Act No. 28 of 2011) ("the Act"). A Tax Court comprises of a Judge, two panel members, one of them has to be an accountant and the other a representative of the commercial community, and in particular cases may be selected for specific expertise held. The role of the members is to assist the presiding Judge to adjudicate on disputes of fact before Court.

The members must:

- Be in good standing;
- Possess appropriate experience;
- Perform their functions independently, impartially and without fear, favour or prejudice by virtue of their qualifications, expertise and experience in the fields of their industry;
- Be South African citizens who permanently reside in the Republic.

Applications must contain:

- A profile or Curriculum Vitae for the appointment/re-appointment to the Tax Court for the 2022-2027 tenure;
- The Applicant should indicate the area category of membership (either Accountant member or Commercial member) providing the following information: Full name; ID number and gender; latest residential address, contact and email; previous experience quoting dates and organisations, or institutions concerned; academic qualifications and other directorships;
- Certified copy of RSA Identity Document and certified copies of relevant qualifications;
- Any other information that may be of assistance to the panel in considering whether the person has the requisite business acumen or applicable knowledge or experience.

Further Considerations: Background verification, including criminal record and citizenship checks, will form part of the selection process. It is the nominee's responsibility to have foreign qualifications verified by the South African Qualifications Authority (SAQA). Nominees/ applicants will be contacted only if they have been short-listed. Nominations of and applications by people with disabilities are encouraged. Appointments to the Panel will take account of gender, age, and demographic representation. Applicants who are in any way conflicted or who refuse to comply with the confidentiality and restraint requirements in the relevant provisions of the Tax Administration Act will be disqualified from appointment.

Applications and enquiries must be addressed to the Chief Registrar of the Tax Court, Ms Marisa Mckenzie / Manager Ms Tebogo Muthabuli, Office of the Registrar of Tax Court, registrartaxcourt@sars.gov.za.
