

CLARIFICATIONS, QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

RFP06-2026

APPOINTMENT OF A SERVICE PROVIDER FOR PROJECT AND PORTFOLIO MANAGEMENT SYSTEM FOR A PERIOD OF FOUR (4) YEARS.

Communication #3

Date of Issue: 24 JULY 2026

| NO. | QUESTION                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | RESPONSE/CLARIFICATION                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
|-----|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1.  | How many users require training by role?                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | a. System Admin = 5 b. Centre of Excellence super-users = 5 c. Junior Project Manager, Project Managers and Senior Project Manager = 73 d. Portfolio Managers = 8 e. Project Coordinators = 24 BRS reference: BRS Section 5.1 - Training and Knowledge Transfer (110 contributors and 5 administrators for year 1); and Section 3(c) - Training.                                                                                                 |
| 2.  | Does SARS require: Option 1 – Import/Export Capability The ability to manually or on-demand import Microsoft Project schedules into the PPMIS and export schedules from the PPMIS back to Microsoft Project, with users managing the exchange process. Option 2 – True Bidirectional Integration A native, bidirectional integration between Microsoft Project Desktop and the PPMIS, whereby schedule information, updates, and related project data can be synchronized between the two systems without manual import/export activities. | SARS confirms that its requirement aligns with Option 1 – Import/Export Capability. SARS requires the ability to manually or on-demand import Microsoft Project schedules into the PPMIS and export schedules from the PPMIS back to Microsoft Project, with users managing the exchange process. Option 2 - SARS does not require a native, real-time bidirectional integration or automatic synchronization between Microsoft Project Desktop and the PPMIS. |
| 3.  | Are APIs available and documented for each target system?                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | APIs will be developed and documented in collaboration with the successful bidder.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |