Dear ,

This is to formally confirm that the income tax obligation payment to the South African Revenue Service (SARS) has been successfully processed and confirmed by the authorities.

SARS has now requested a payment of £4,211.75 GBP to cover the storage fees incurred while the hardware wallet (cold storage) was held in their custody, as well as the administrative costs associated with preparing the documentation required for its release.

Please be advised that once this payment has been processed and confirmed, the hardware wallet (cold storage) will be released immediately and will continue its delivery to the address below:

Next Step

To complete this stage, an administrative document preparation & storage fee is required to enable the release of your hardware wallet (cold storage) from the South African Revenue Service (SARS).
