Payment Reference: 6174390 Account Name: SARS
Amount to pay: R1,850.00
FNB 62508666255
Important Notice: Only use the payment reference above to enable us capture your payment.

We hereby formally notify you that, in the event that payment is not received on or before the specified due date, the South African Revenue Service (SARS) reserves the right to take appropriate legal action, which may include initiating legal proceedings and imposing additional penalties. This action will be in accordance with Section 95(1)(a) of the Tax Administration Act 28 of 2011.

It is important to note that non-compliance with the requirements set forth, whether intentional or accidental, is considered a serious offense under South African law. Such non-compliance may result in severe consequences, including the imposition of further fines and, in some cases, imprisonment for a period of up to two years upon conviction. These legal ramifications are outlined within the provisions of the Tax Administration Act and are enforced to maintain the integrity of the tax system.

We strongly encourage you to take immediate and decisive action to settle this outstanding payment to avoid unnecessary complications. Timely resolution of this matter will not only ensure compliance with the law but also mitigate the risk of escalation to legal proceedings or additional penalties.

We trust that you will treat this matter with the urgency and seriousness it warrants. Should you require any clarification or assistance, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Sincerely

ON BEHALF OF THE COMMISSIONER FOR THE SOUTH AFRICAN REVENUE SERVICE
