Question and Answer

No	Question	Answer
1.	I refer to table 1.2 Unit Price for Proposed New Equipment. I can see that the table has an option for three models with the corresponding unit price for each. If a bidder only proposes one model, does that mean one would have to place null values for the other optional models?
2.
3.		SARS will evaluate all brands that are proposed and that meet the technical requirements specified in the tender documents. The brands in SARS's current fleet of document scanners will not be preferred over alternate brands proposed by Bidders.
