1 SUMMARY

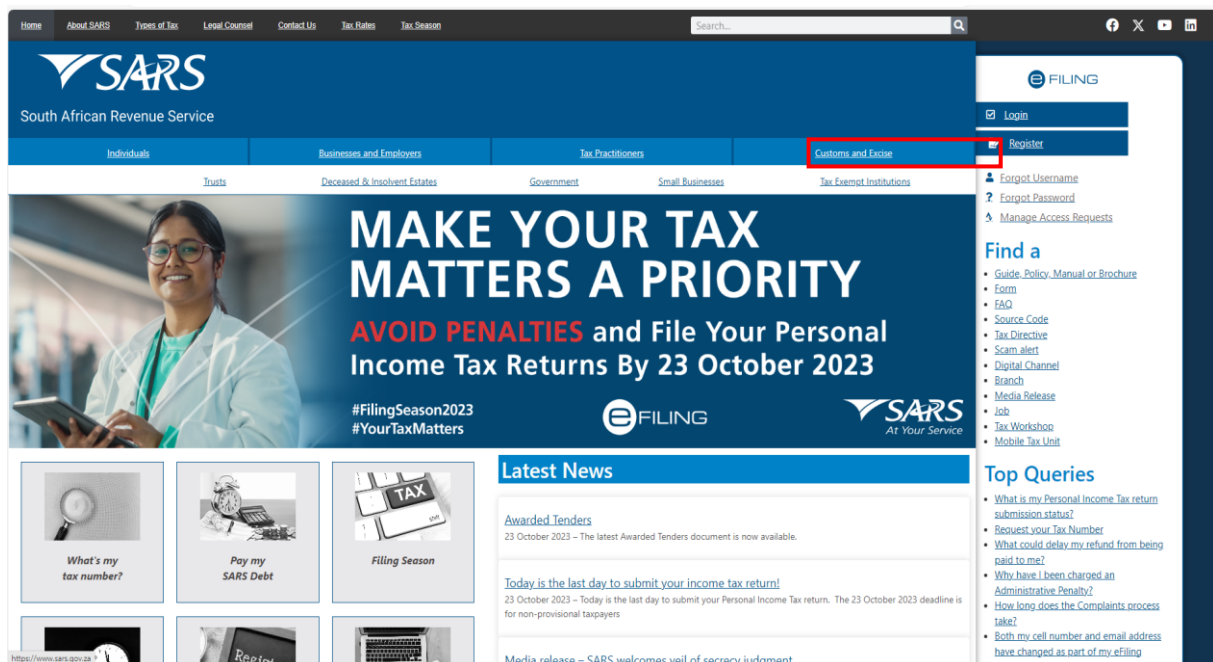

- a) Section 15 of the Customs and Excise Act of 1996 (hereon referred to as the Act) requires that each person entering or leaving South Africa must make a complete a declaration of the goods which they:
 - i) Have on their person;
 - ii) Are carrying for themselves; or
 - iii) Are carrying on behalf of other persons.
- b) Full particulars of the following must be declared:
 - i) On entering South Africa:
 - A) Goods acquired abroad on which duty has not been paid;
 - B) Repaired, processed or remodelled goods;
 - C) Prohibited, restricted or controlled goods; and
 - D) Goods temporarily imported with the intention of being re-exported.
 - ii) Before leaving South Africa:
 - A) Goods intended to be repaired, processed or remodelled;
 - B) Prohibited, restricted or controlled goods; and
 - C) Goods temporarily exported with the intention of being re-imported.
- c) Goods described above includes:
 - i) Goods in excess of the duty free allowance in terms of Rebate Item 407.02 and the Guide on Duty Free Allowances (SC-PA-01-03);
 - ii) Commercial goods; and
 - iii) Any road vehicle (excluding SACU registered vehicles) for temporary import or export.
- d) The Commissioner may determine the manner in which declaration may be made.
- e) Historically, provision was made only for manual declaration to be made on a Traveller Card (TC-01).
- f) The South African Traveller Management System (SATMS) is implemented to allow for voluntary electronic declaration.
- g) Submission by a traveller of an electronic Traveller Declaration in terms of Rule 15.03A(2)(a) is regarded as submission of form TC-01 (Traveller Card) for purposes of the Rules under Section 15 of the Act.
- h) A person may be questioned and goods may be inspected by a Customs Officer.
- i) Any assessed duties, taxes and levies must be paid.
- j) This document serves to guide travellers and crew members who will complete the electronic Traveller Declaration on the South African Traveller Management System (SATMS).
- k) Completion of the electronic Traveller Declaration will require mandatory fields to be completed. Mandatory fields will be highlighted in red, if not completed.
- l) The traveller is able to access the electronic Traveller Declaration either through the:
 - i) SARS website;
 - ii) QR Code, found displayed on the banners or pamphlets at the Customs ports of entry. Refer to SC-PA-01-13 on how to use this method;
 - iii) SARS Mobi Application (eFiling) which is available to users registered for eFiling. eFiling is a free electronic tool designed by SARS to offer electronic services such as filing tax returns, making payments, and accessing accounts. Refer to SC-PA-01-13 on how to use this method; or

Effective Date: 01 November 2024

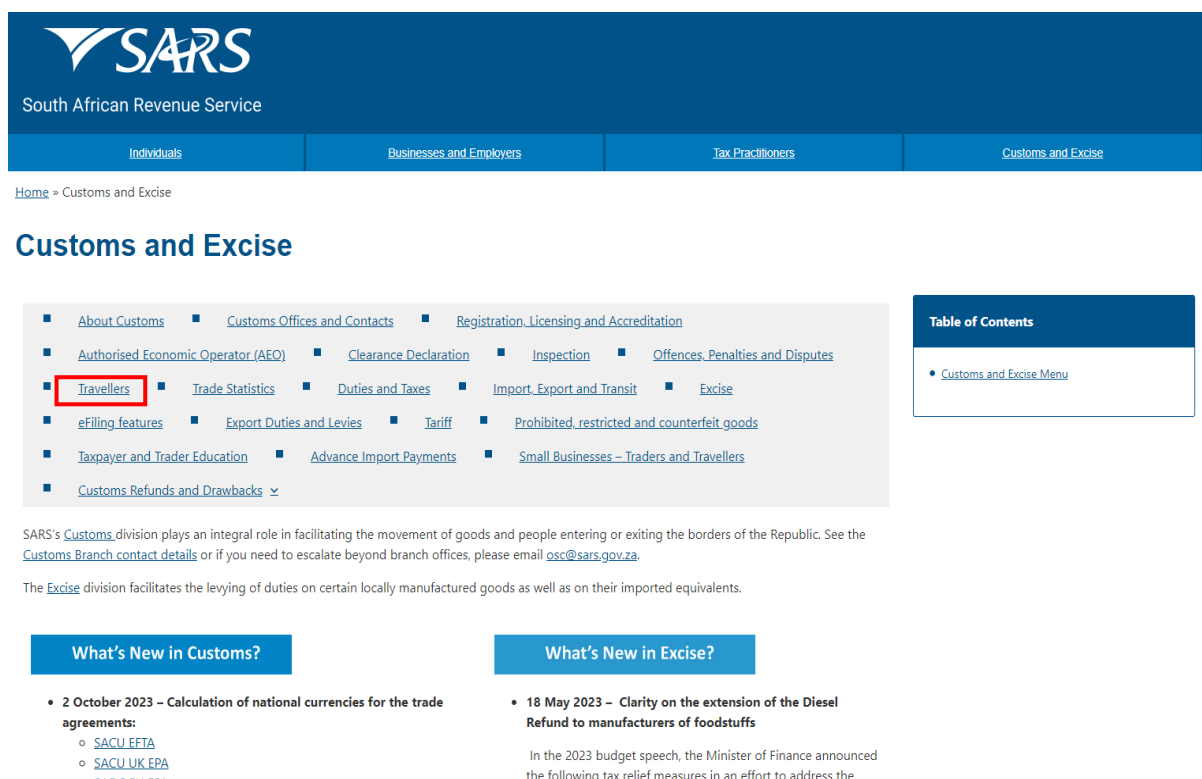

- iv) SATMS Mobi Application which can be downloaded by anyone on their electronic device to complete the traveller declaration. Refer to SC-PA-01-13 on how to use this method.

2 ACCESSING THE TRAVEL DECLARATION THROUGH THE SARS WEBSITE

- a) The traveller clicks on the Customs and Excise link.

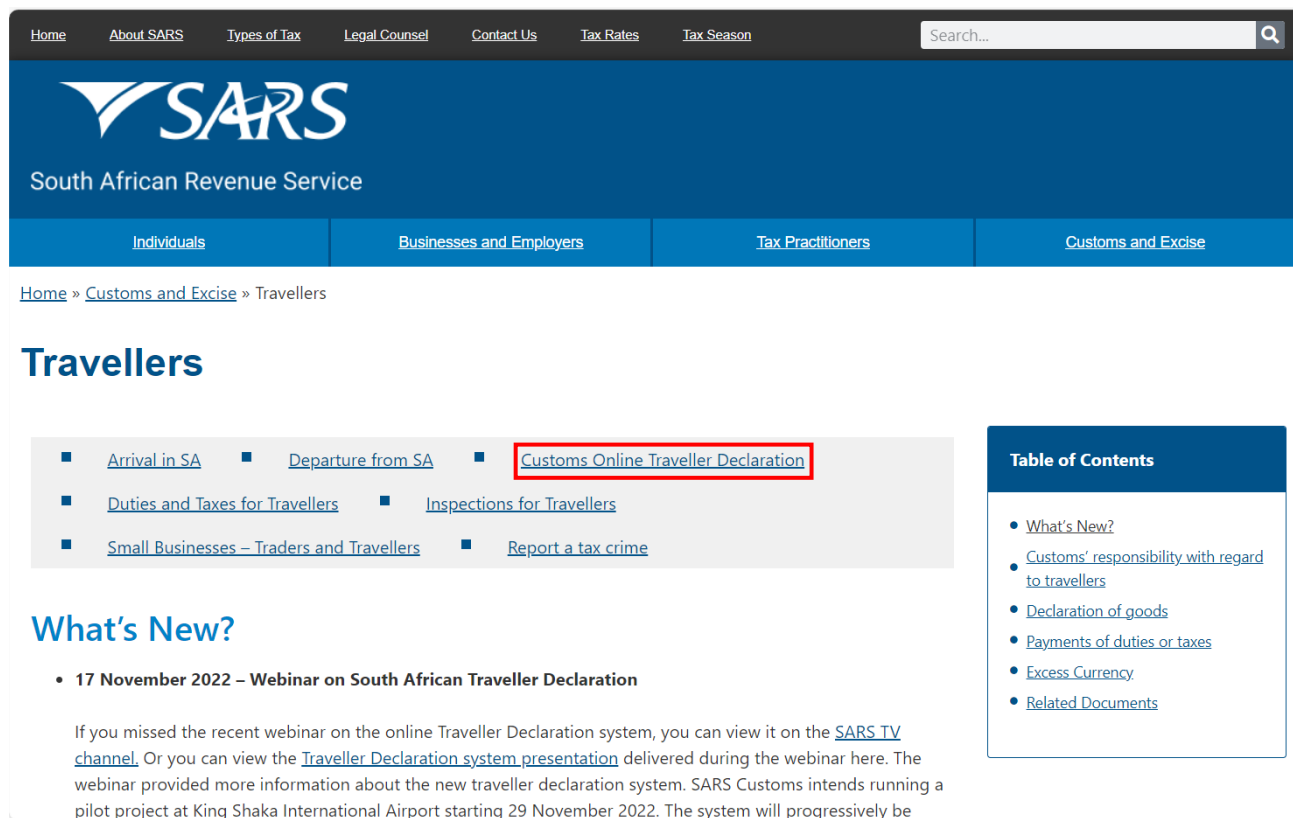

- b) The traveller clicks the 'Travellers' link.

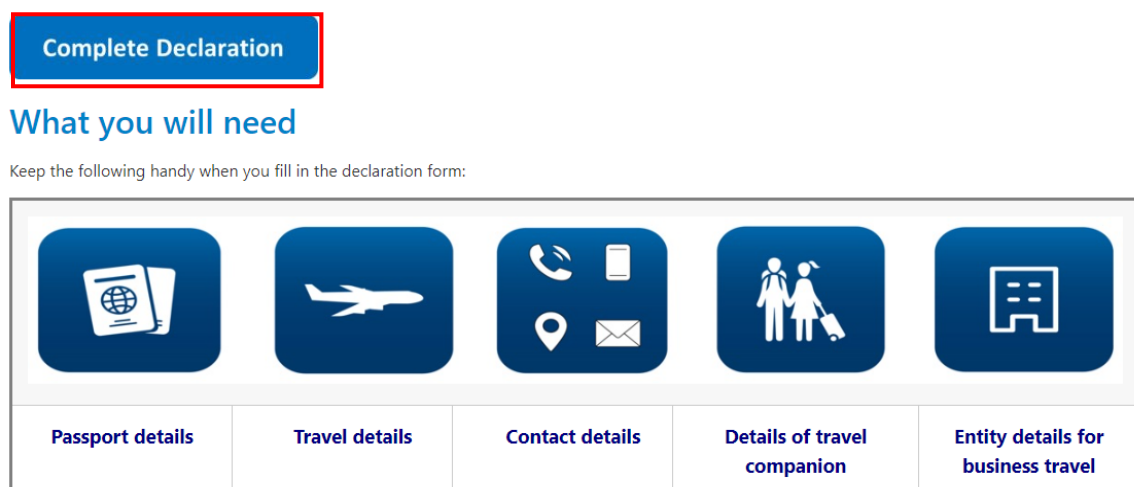

Effective Date: 01 November 2024

c) The traveller clicks the 'Customs Online Traveller Declaration' link.

The screenshot shows the SARS website header with navigation links: Home, About SARS, Types of Tax, Legal Counsel, Contact Us, Tax Rates, and Tax Season. A search bar is located on the right. Below the header is the SARS logo and the text 'South African Revenue Service'. A blue navigation bar contains links for Individuals, Businesses and Employers, Tax Practitioners, and Customs and Excise. The breadcrumb trail reads: Home » Customs and Excise » Travellers. The main heading is 'Travellers'. A list of links includes: Arrival in SA, Departure from SA, Customs Online Traveller Declaration (highlighted with a red box), Duties and Taxes for Travellers, Inspections for Travellers, Small Businesses – Traders and Travellers, and Report a tax crime. On the right, a 'Table of Contents' sidebar lists: What's New?, Customs' responsibility with regard to travellers, Declaration of goods, Payments of duties or taxes, Excess Currency, and Related Documents. The 'What's New?' section features a bullet point for a webinar on 17 November 2022 and a paragraph explaining the new traveller declaration system, noting its pilot project at King Shaka International Airport starting 29 November 2022.

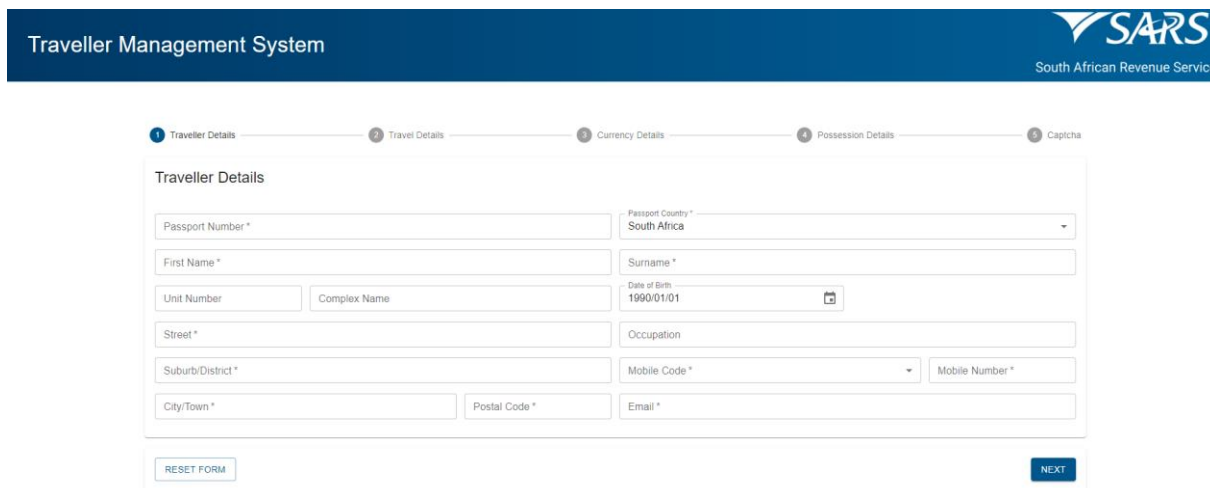

d) The traveller clicks on the 'Complete Declaration' button.

The screenshot shows a blue button with the text 'Complete Declaration' highlighted by a red box. Below it is the heading 'What you will need' and the text 'Keep the following handy when you fill in the declaration form:'. A horizontal row of five blue icons is displayed: a passport, an airplane, a contact card with a phone, a location pin, and an envelope; two people with a suitcase; and a building. Below these icons are five corresponding labels: Passport details, Travel details, Contact details, Details of travel companion, and Entity details for business travel.

Effective Date: 01 November 2024

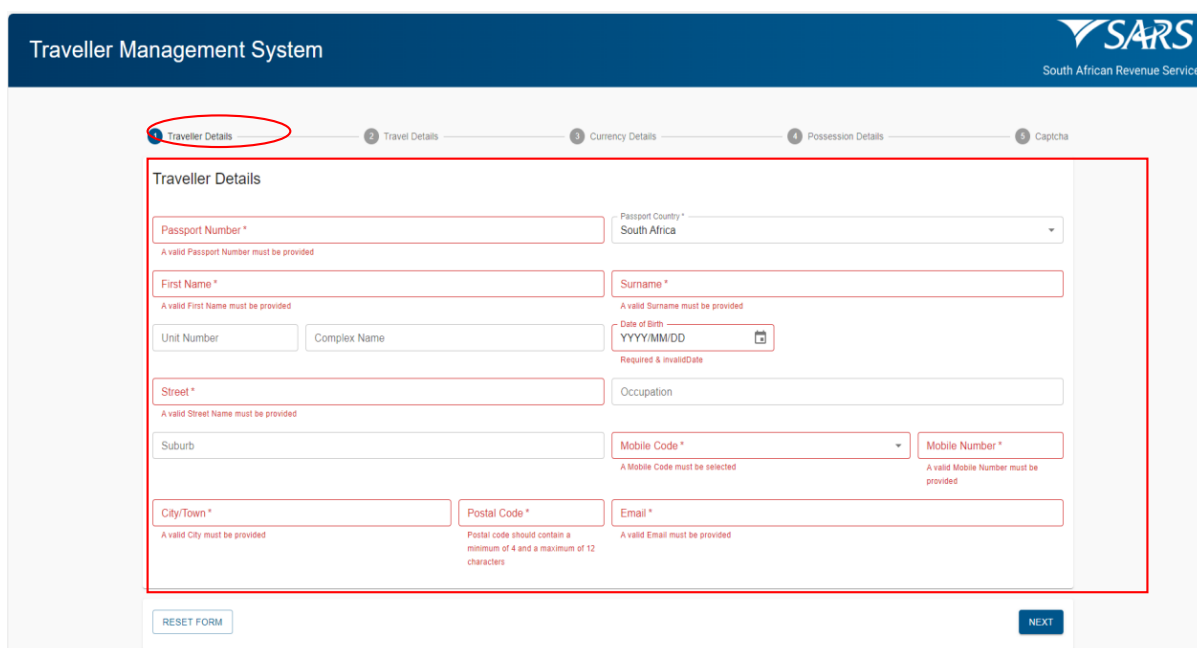

- e) The accessed link will open the first screen for the electronic Traveller Declaration.
