

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

BIDDERS QUESTIONS	SARS RESPONSE
May I kindly be emailed the information promised at the tender briefing session this morning	The compulsory briefing session was cancelled; however, prospective bidders were afforded an opportunity to view the site on the 24 and 26 of March 2020.  The briefing session presentation slides is published on the SARS website under RFP 42/2019.
Is the OHS file supposed to form part of the returnable	The Health & Safety File is normally compiled post award therefore the answer is no. However, contractors are to submit their Health & Safety Plan centred on the Baseline Risk Assessment provided under specification brief
I have already downloaded but noticed the BOQ is not in Excel but PDF format. You don't have an excel one?	The bidder is expected to input the published BOQ manually
The briefing, which has to take place on the 24th March 2020.	A notification was published on the SARS website regarding briefing session