TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Good day, this is a letter from the SARS Department notifying the good citizens of South Africa that there is a Federal disbursement of funds from the International body WHO, this funds is an empowerment fund contributed by the World Health Organization to help support the world through this current state of Covid19 pandemic.

The South Africa Revenue Service has been sending this sensitive information via Certified mail/Post-mail to valid home address who's tax record is confirmed for this Empowerment. According to the law to this claim the policies and regulations have to be kept discreet and confidential. due to the amount involved we are concerned about citizens security to final stage. There have been cases of double Claims.

Let me start by introducing myself again, I am Mr Edward Kieswetter, the Commissioner for South African Revenue Service (SARS) and Chairman. The SOUTH AFRICAN Government has been disbursing Millions of Rands, these funds is to help the South African People during the Covid19 Pandemic, Diseases, Starvation and Poverty. The Empowerment has been going on for the past three months.

It will be well to know that you are trying to get a very clear picture about this Tax disbursement For your clear understanding, Your INCOME TAX NUMBER was drawn from a random lottery ballot system and it appeared that you emerged one of the lucky winners in the category. The sum of R76,000,000.00 million will be transferred into your escrow account which will be created for you.

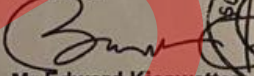

I have outlined the detailed story of how this funds came about and got to you discretely. The Government has begin to send out direct payments to few individuals this week, last week there were arising issues of people claiming other people's funds, such act is fraud, I strongly advice you to proceed in claiming this money now.

This is an opportunity of a lifetime therefore should not be taken for granted, failure to proceed with the processing of this claim will be a loss to you and your family.

All that is needed to do is contact the Chief Officer, Mr Beyers Theron (Head: Customs - Border Operations, Port Entry and Customs Compliance) to assist you get your claim money.

You are required to reconfirm your Full name, Phone Number, Address, Occupation for us to cross-check and see if it corresponds with the one on the official documents. reply to email provided below.

Sincerely,

Mr Edward Kieswetter
Chairman/Commissioner
