GENERAL INFORMATION

1. This list must be completed and held in readiness for submission to the customs and excise officer who first visits the ship. It must be signed by the master and every member of the crew, and each person must state opposite his signature what quantities of sealable goods he has in his possession, or that he has no such goods in his possession.
2. The master and other members of the crew who remain on the ship during its stay in port may each be allowed to retain in his possession the following quantities (to cover four days) of the under mentioned sealable goods:

	Tobacco in any form	Potable spirits in any form	Wine	Beer or stout
The master	200 cig/230 grams	1 litre	3 litres	4 litres
officers (including pursers, surgeons, chief stewards, wireless operators and serangs)	150 cig/175 grams	1 litre	3 litres	4 litres
other members of the crew	112 cig/115 grams	Nil	3 litres*	Nil

3. When the quantities in possession of the master or other members of the crew do not exceed those specified in paragraph 2, the goods need not be shown, but otherwise the entire quantities must be shown to the customs and excise officer who will place the excess under seal or release it upon payment of duty.
4. In any case where the master or other members of the crew remain on board the ship for more than four days, the Controller may on request authorise the issue from under seal, for consumption on board, of the following quantities per day:

	Tobacco in any form	Potable spirits in any form	Wine	Beer or stout
The master	30 cig/30 grams	100 millilitres	1 litre	1 litre
officers (including pursers, surgeons, chief stewards, wireless operators and serangs)	20 cig/25 grams	100 millilitres	1litre	1 litre
other members of the crew	15 cig/15 grams	Nil	1 litre*	nil

5. Sealable articles found in the possession of the master or any other member of the crew will, if not enumerated on this list, be liable to forfeiture and the person in whose possession they are found will be liable to prosecution. Unconsumed sealable stores which are omitted from this list will likewise be liable to forfeiture and the master liable to prosecution.
6. Tobacco in any form, potable spirits, wine, beer and stout not placed under seal or issued from under seal will be issued individually to each person entitled thereto in terms of the foregoing, and not in bulk for distribution by the master or other person.
7. The master may break the customs and excise seal as soon as the ship has passed beyond the limits of the port and all physical contact with the shore has ceased.
8. (a) Excisable goods are goods which have been manufactured in the Republic of South Africa and are specified in Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the Customs and Excise Act (Act No. 91 of 1964). Such goods include, inter alia, the following: Spirituous beverages, and beer; cigarettes, cigars and other manufactured tobacco products.
(b) Ad valorem excise goods are specified in Part 2B of Schedule 1 to the above-mentioned Act and include, inter alia, the following: Perfumery and toilet preparations; articles of apparel or leather; articles of furskin; jewellery and watches; binoculars, cameras and other photographic equipment; radios and tape recorders; cigarette lighters. Ad valorem excise duties are levied on both imported and locally manufactured goods.
